SAMUEL STAHL'S MONUMENT IN THE QUEER FAMILY CEMETERY

THE QUEER FAMILY CEMETERY

SAMUEL STAHL (1838 – 1865) WAS A CIVIL WAR SOLDIER. His actual burial location is in the Poplar Grove National Cemetery, Petersburg, VA. He was a member of Co. E 93rd PA Vol. Army. (USGenWeb says he was buried at Gettysburg, PA.) His wife was Phebe Queer Stahl (1832-1921) a daughter of Jacob and Eve (Hoover) Queer. The 1930's WPA Survey stated that she is in an unmarked grave in the Queer Family Cemetery.

Leading Marshall Dickey and David R. Hay to the isolated location of the Queer family cemetery was Michael Klink, Sr. who lives along the Garrett Shortcut and is familiar through hunting with the location of the Queer family cemetery. Marshall Dickey has ancestors buried in the overgrown cemetery.

FROM THE ESTATE OF HER HUSBAND, ALFRED "AL" KNOTTS.

DONATIONS

Butch Leazier donated a pair of barber scissors that were used in the shop of Harry Driggs and a key ring advertising the East End Tavern. Bob Brant copied and improved an old Shanksville Drum Corps photo. Joyce Knotts also donated three binders while Sue Clites donated six older Bervalon yearbooks.

Mary Engle donated four quilt frame legs from the estate of Emma Gene Engle. We received a donation to our endowment fund from Doris Stuzman in memory of Daniel G. Hay. Mandy Lauer donated sports memorabilia from the Berlin Boosters.

Robert B. Platt of Ohio made a monetary donation in appreciation for the beautiful quilt he won at our September annual dinner. Karen Bittner and Leanna Coughenour have worked in the vault on our inventory while Carolyn Payne and Leanne Calvert have worked on other organizational projects.

We appreciate all the donations our members and friends have made throughout 2023 and wish a happy new years to all our volunteers, society members, and friends.

Thanks, David R. Hay, Curator.
