

Full Disclosure

Descendants of Saylor Hill were the big winners at our 2017 Annual Banquet,

First prize was won by my first cousin, Shane Allen Saylor, # 7265 page 698. The quilt was made by Virginia Rose (Logue) Fogle Saylor. Rose was the wife of my uncle Richard Paul Saylor, # 7202 page 683, and granddaughter of Rose (Saylor) Poorbaugh, # 1819 page 379.

Second prize was won by Ernest R. Saylor, my second cousin once removed, # 4255 page 394. The basket of maple products was provided by Hillegas Sugar Camp, owned by Kyle Hillegas, third cousin once removed of my wife, Peggy (Sayler) Saylor, #6910 page 647, daughter of Samuel G. Sayler and Pauline E. Hillegas.

The centerpiece flowers were won by Murue Shultz, wife of my sixth cousin through the Lichty family.

I was a dinner companion of Mark Twain. Yes, he drew the winning tickets. I am not related to Samuel Clemens, Mark Twain or Doug Riley.

Stewart R. Saylor, Treasurer
7251 page 694

Mark Twain and Stew Saylor, The Innocents Athome